

Boy Scouts of America: National Photo Contest

The Boy Scouts of America is asking for your help to show others what Scouting means through photographs. They say a picture is worth a thousand words. We need your photos to describe this time tested organization. Share your Scouting photos, your Scouting memories, and your "image" of what this century old organization means to you.

Dust off your camera, dig out your zoom lens and get to work capturing your adventure. Upload your photo and be entered for your chance to be selected as one of the winning photographs to be featured and printed in a photo history book "Boy Scouts of America: Today."

Photos will be judged based half on Creativity and half on Photo Quality. Submit your photos under one of twelve categories corresponding with the 12 Points of Scout Law. Those categories are; Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean and Reverent. Photos must be Scouting related.

You must be 13 years of age or older to enter, however, children under 13 may enter their photograph with their parents' permission. There is no limit on the number of photos that may be entered. Please read the Official Contest Rules before submitting photographs. Employees of the Boy Scouts of America National Council, local councils and their immediate family members (spouse, parent, child, sibling, and their respective spouses, regardless of where they live) or persons living in the same households of such employees, whether or not related are not eligible to participate.
